

19th July 2017

Main points discussed during meeting on 6th July 2017

1. Followed up on main points from previous planning meeting (17th January 2017).
2. The following theme was chosen to present to the for May 2018 conference:

The Family, Digital Communications, Uncertainty about Future Employment, Family – Work Balance, and Gender Gap.

Joseph FX Zahra to reach out to Dr Nadia Delicata to ask her about the possibility of being the main contributor of the paper.

3. We discussed initiatives encourage greater participation in the Foundation's mission from:
 - a. Women
 - b. Young professionals (35-45 years old)One idea is to have an introductory discounted membership rate for new members with in the young professionals bracket and younger. We would also reach out to people in their twenties and early thirties. Another idea was to have a presence on LinkedIn and other social media.
4. Possible meeting with Nuncio – Fr Joe Galea Curmi to follow up
5. Responsible consumption presentation at San Anton School – October - Mark DeMicoli to follow up.
6. Seminar with Fr Philip Larrey on Technology and Social Doctrine – Mark DeMicoli to follow up.
7. Possible Business Ethics Course with PFI – Jan 2018 - Mark DeMicoli to discuss with Fr Jimmy Bonnici. Also to ask Lawrence Zammit if we can use the Misco training rooms.

8. Scheduling Hour of Reflection tentative date – 16th September, afternoon, in Gozo – Joe Borg to co-ordinate.
9. Year-end Thanksgiving Mass and Dinner – possible at Fort St Angelo – Mark to enquire with Fra John if Saturday 25th November at 7 pm, would work.
10. Professor Josef Bonnici gave us an update on Voluntary Solidarity Funds – We decided to host a fundraising dinner to raise some seed funding, to kickstart this initiative in Malta.