ANNOUNCEMENT of COMPETITION

“ECONOMY AND SOCIETY” INTERNATIONAL AWARD

SECOND EDITION – 2015

In order to promote the knowledge of the Social Doctrine of the Catholic Church (SDC) the Centesimus Annus – Pro Pontifice Foundation will bestow:

- a €30,000 “Economy and Society” international award to publications in the fields of economics and social studies
- a €20,000 award to young SDC researchers, to be divided among two or more researchers

The prizes are awarded every two years, the next edition to take place in 2015.

International award

The prize will be awarded to a work published after 2005 which stands out for its original contribution to in depth study and implementation of the Social Doctrine of the Church, is of proven doctrinal soundness and exceptional quality. The Centesimus Annus – Pro Pontifice Foundation wishes to honour works that can reach out to a large audience and are the expression of a strong Christian commitment in economic and social activities. The jury will consider works published in English, French, German, Italian, Portuguese and Spanish. Should there be more than one winner, the award will be equally divided among them.

Award to SDC researchers

The award will be bestowed on two or more theses in the field of SDC. Applications can be filed by young researchers born after January 1980 who must submit two copies of their thesis with a brief presentation by their Department Head. The jury will consider works published in English, French, German, Italian, Portuguese and Spanish.

How to apply
