

NOTE ON THE FOUNDATION'S INITIATIVES CONCERNING THE COMMON GOOD IN THE DIGITAL AGE

The Foundation first reflected on the theme “The Common Good in the Digital Age” or the relationship between the evolution of the social framework, the digital world and ethics at the Convention of Italian members in Rome on 19th November, 2016 at the headquarters of Civiltà Cattolica: The subject was:

THE FUTURE OF WORK, INNOVATION AND INVESTMENT: IS PRECARIOUSNESS UNAVOIDABLE?

It was picked up again and further examined at the Consultation in Madrid from 25th-27th January 2017, organised in collaboration with the Universidad Pontificia Comillas ICAI-ICADE and the BBVA group. The Consultation is part of the so-called “Dublin Process”, named after the city where the initiative kicked off. The specific theme of the Consultation was:

ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL ETHICS IN THE DIGITAL AGE
