

PROF.SSA ANNA MARIA TARANTOLA

CHAIRWOMAN CENTESIMUS ANNUS PRO PONTIFICE FOUNDATION

Married, two daughters and three grandchildren. She is currently the Chair of the Centesimus Annus Pro Pontifice Foundation, and of the Italian Section at the Holy See of the Société des Membres de la Légion d'Honneur.

She is a member of: the Steering Committee of the Osservatorio Banca Impresa, the Advisory Board of the AIAF, the Steering Committee of the University Centre for the Social Doctrine of the Church at the Catholic University, and the Archbishop's Commission for the Promotion of the Common Good.

She is a Board Member of the Catholic University of the Sacred Heart and of the EDUCatt Foundation. She was President of Rai (2012-2015), Vice President of the European Broadcasting Union (Geneva), Deputy Director General of the Bank of Italy (2009-2012) and member of the Committee on Banking Supervision (Frankfurt). Adjunct professor of Monetary Economics, Banking Technique and Public Controls on Banking Groups at the Catholic University from the late 1980s to 2002.

Author of numerous publications on topics concerning banking and financial systems, anti-money laundering, sustainable development, the role of women in the world of work, public service broadcasting and the world of communications.

She is currently mainly involved in various voluntary activities and the dissemination of the Social Doctrine of the Church.

Grand Officer Order of Merit of the Italian Republic, Officer of the Order of the Légion d'Honneur of the French Republic, Ambrogino d'Oro of the City of Milan, Bellisario Prize.