

Chapitre du Luxembourg

On the occasion of the Jubilee year, the Luxembourg Chapter of the Centesimus Annus Pro Pontifice Foundation, in cooperation with the Headquarters of the CAPPF, is pleased to invite you to the Webinar :

Indigenous Peoples, Universal Values and Catholic Social Thought

WEBINAR

Wednesday 12 February 2025, 2.30 pm to 4 pm

Conference link (Webex): <https://tinyurl.com/4ec8wsv9>

Introductions

- Paolo Garonna, President of the CAPPF
- H.H. David Foka, Chairman of The Maison de l'Afrique, Luxembourg and European Representative of the Panafrican Council of Traditional and Customary Authorities

Moderator

- Christophe Déage, Coordinator of the Luxembourg Chapter of the CAPPF and chairman of LH Europe-Grand-Château d'Ansembourg

Key-note

H. Em. Jean-Claude, Cardinal Hollerich,
Archbishop of Luxembourg

Round Table

Prof. Charles Binam Bikoï,
Executive Secretary of the International Centre for Research and Documentation on African Traditions and Languages (CERDOTOLA)

H.M. Queen Diambi Kabatusuila,
Medal of Honour of the Institute for Advanced Studies and Cooperation of the Pontifical Academy of Science.

Mindahi Bastida,
Founder of the Earth Elders and General Coordinator of the Otomi-Toltec Regional Council in Mexico and the Mexico Council of Sustainable Development

Masaaki Nagai,
Wisdom Keeper of the Kannagara tradition, Member of the advisory Board of the Center for Earth Ethics of the Union Theological seminary, New York, Member of the Board of the Society for Conservation Biology, Washington D.C.

Sharing, encounter, dialogue and cooperation. It should conclude identifying what the next steps should be for mutual benefit and enrichment.

Partners

KATHOLISCHER BEIRAT
ZU LËTZEBUERG

The Earth Elders

GRAND-CHÂTEAU
D'ANSEMBOURG