

The Centesimus Annus Pro Pontifice Foundation (FCAPP) is pleased to invite you to the Webinar:

«Catholic Social Thought facing the challenges and opportunities of the Mediterranean.

Reflections and best entrepreneurial practices from Marseille»

Promoted by FCAPP in co-operation with the Gregorian University and the Institut Catholique de la Méditerranée (ICM)

This webinar is the second of a series on «The Social Doctrine of the Mediterranean», which builds on the «Theology of the Mediterranean» to analyse the possible contribution of Abrahamic dialogue to economic social and policy thinking

On Thursday 15 January 2026, 5.30 PM to 7.00 PM, Rome time (CET)

Introduction and background: Paolo Garonna, FCAPP President; Constance de Castelnaud, ICM; Pierre de Charentenay, Jésuite (Marseille)

Panel of business leaders:

- Jean-Baptiste de Tourris (Vista)
- Nathalie Gatellier (La Fabrique Du Nous)
- Carl Lauron (BuyCo)

Moderator:

Augustin Destremau (Rerum Novairum)

Please pre-register to attend the Webinar using this form

Join the Webinar at the following Zoom link : Click here and enter the ID 821 2836 2737

Catholic Social Thought facing the challenges and opportunities of the Mediterranean

Reflections and best entrepreneurial practices from Marseille

WEBINAR

January 15th 2026

17:30-19:00