

Self-Declaration of honorability

I, the undersigned
Born in.....Country.....
Date of Birth.....
Tax Number
Residing in.....Address

Pursuant to and for the purposes of Vatican Law no. 211 of November 22, 2017 relating to the registration and supervision of not-for-profit entities, and the legislation in force on money laundering and terrorist financing prevention, enacted by the Financial Information Authority of the Holy See (AIF) with Regulation No. 5 of September 19, 2018. Under my own responsibility, being aware of the fact that, in the case of false declarations or drafting and use of false deeds, the sanctions set forth in the aforementioned law and in the AIF regulations will be enforced against myself,

I hereby declare, pursuant to the law in effect in my country of nationality:

1. To be entitled to my full rights as a citizen;
2. Not to have received any irrevocable conviction or irrevocable judgement of application of the penalty in accordance with the Code of Criminal Procedure of my country, in respect of criminal offences against Public Administration, the Administration of Justice, public faith, the public economy, industry, or commerce, or against property for which the law imposes the penalty of imprisonment;
3. Not to have been declared - according to the rules of my country - bankrupt, unless rehabilitated, nor to have been Chairman, Director with delegated powers, Director General, Statutory Auditor of companies or entities that have been subject to bankruptcy proceedings, composition with creditors, or administrative compulsory winding up, for at least three financial years prior to the adoption of the respective measures, it being understood that the impediment lasts for up to five years after the adoption of the measures;
4. Not to be in situations of forfeiture, prohibition, or suspension stipulated by anti-mafia laws of my country.

(Place and date)

THE DECLARANT